

Södertälje in the world
The world in Södertälje

Stockholm's big sister

Meeting place

The town that is full of life

Transport hub

The European highways intersect here

44 min to Stockholm C

Fast trains to Göteborg, Malmö, Karlstad etc.

The canal – the gateway between Saltsjön (the Baltic)
and Lake Mälaren

Arlanda, Skavsta and Bromma airports within easy reach

Town of contrasts

Town on the water – sweet and salt

From rolling countryside to the million homes programme

From Sörmland to the exotic

From all corners of the world

80 nationalities

Iraq	8 447	Poland	1 323
Finland	6 604	Germany	1 146
Syria	5 821	Chile	877
Turkey	5 396	Former Yugoslavia	815
Libanon	1 919	Other countries	5 645

Two giants ...

Astra Zeneca:

One of the world's largest pharmaceutical companies. SEK 10 billion of investment in five years.

Scania:

Moving operations to Södertälje.

A total of 14 710 employees.

... and thousands of small businesses

5 700 companies

One of the region's strongest labour markets

Great development potential

A thriving cultural life

Five culture houses

World-class theatre and music

Dynamic cultural associations

World class food

A sporting town with stars and breadth

Masses of stars:

Björn Borg, Malin Ewerlöf, Johanna Sjöberg, Kennedy Bakircioglu ...

80 sports associations:

Everything from aikido to varpa

New stadiums:

The Football Stadium and Axa Sports Centre

Södertälje – a town with over a million

1,2 million visitors!

Tom Tits Experiment: Sweden's largest science centre

Sydpoolen: One of the largest water parks in Sweden

Torekällberget: What Södertälje used to be like

Town centre renewal

Shopping malls renovated

Better traffic environment

Streets, squares and parks are being refurbished

New housing is being built

The unique Maren waterfront environment

Housing – from metropolis to the countryside

400 new waterside homes

2 500 apartments and houses in five years

Glasberga sjöstad: A new district is being built

Södertälje city core: Program for sustainable urban development

Kallfors in Järna: Still expanding!

Södertälje's new town hall

A meeting place for service, democracy and culture

A workplace for 450

Open to everyone

Unique: Town theatre and town hall under the same roof

Choice and security in school

Pre-school: Language development and individual needs

Compulsory school: Compulsory schools with their own profile

Upper secondary school: Working together Municipality – Business

A broad range of adult education

Choice and security in school

Culture School: 1 800 students in new premises

A town with many free schools

Secure pupils who enjoy being at school!

University town

Campus Telge Today: 800 students

An extensive collaboration with KTH, Mälardalens University, Skövde University, Mid Sweden University, Gävle University and Karlstad University

The county's best place for higher education (ask the students!)

Working together higher education – municipality – business

Up and coming Group

Parent company Telge with 16 affiliated companies

Formed 2004 and have 700 employees

Housing

Premises

Power trading

Electricity sales

Energy, district heating network

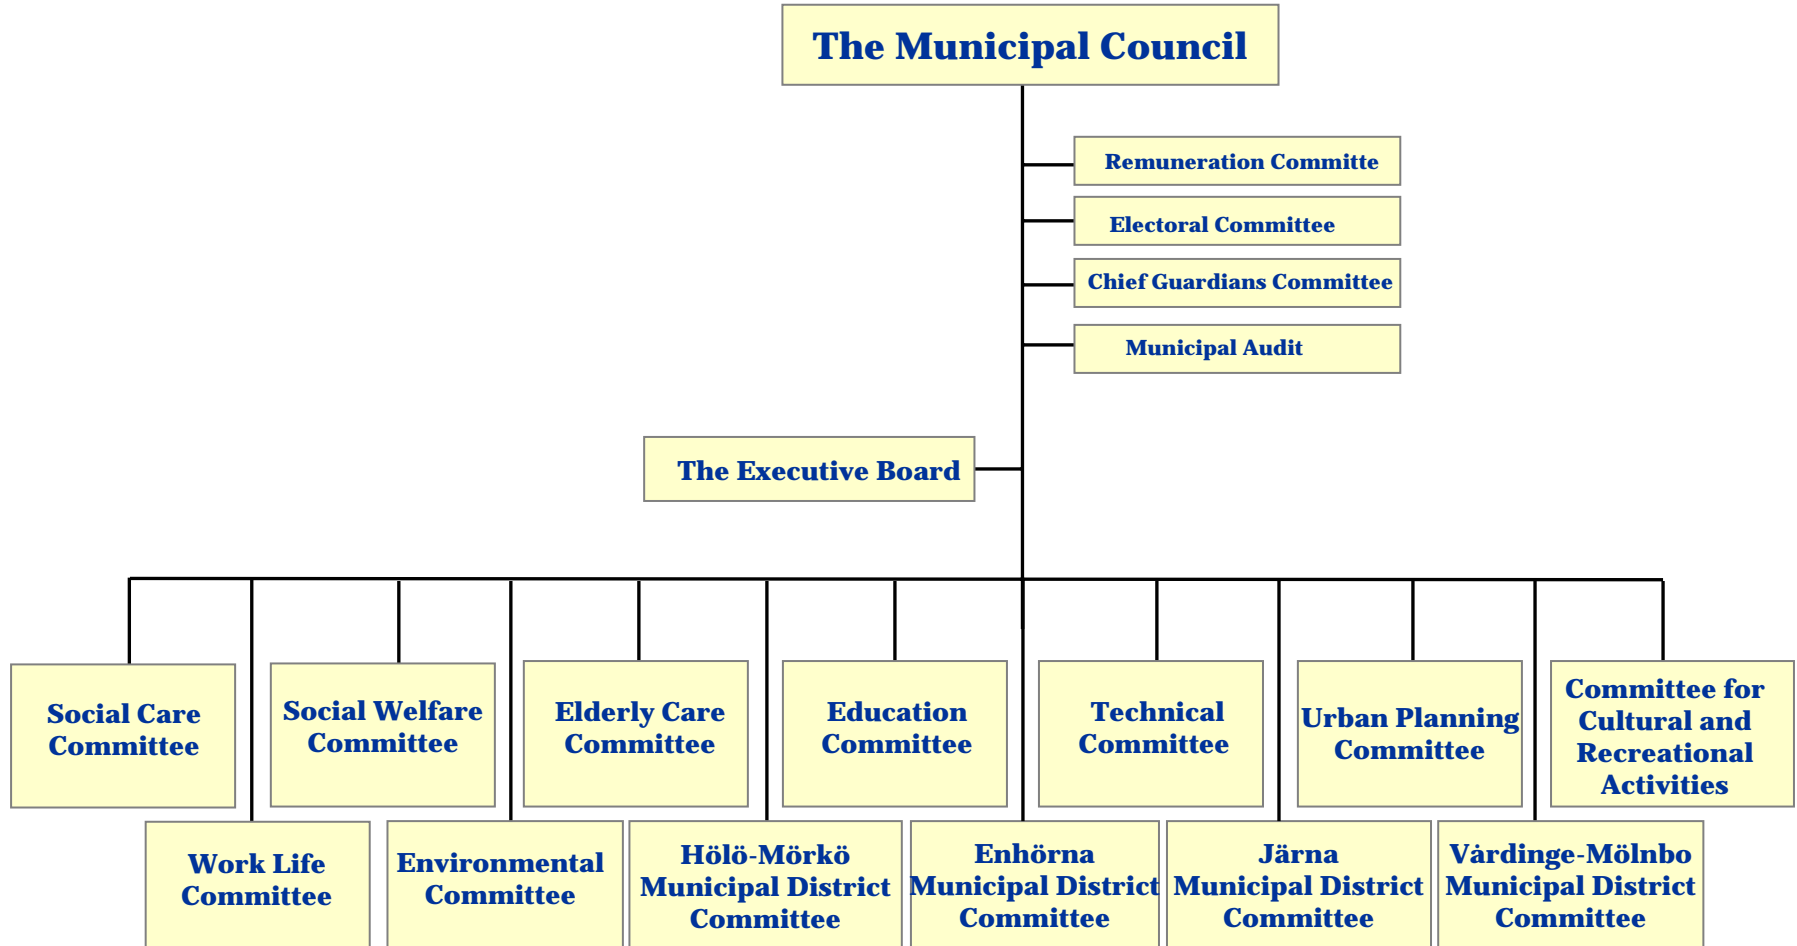

Water

Port

Recycling

Science Centre

Political organisation

Administrative organisation

